$40 REWARD.

STOLEN, on the night of (Monday) 27th. Aug. from Mr. Blake Bryan, of Northampton Co., a BAY MARE, which was traded to me by the theif for a dark blood bay horse about 12 years old, compactly built, Roman face, one white hind foot, with small white spot in forehead, and a very good Saddle horse. The theif is a light mulatto boy, about 22 years of age, light hair and eyes, and professed to be traveling with an officer of the Freedman's Bureau.

I will pay the above reward for the horse and thief, or $20 for the recovery of the horse, and $20 for the apprehension of the thief.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.

A VALUBALE COTTON FARM FOR RENT OR LEASE,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS.—The subscriber wishes to lease for a term of years his plantation near Marlboro, Pitt County.

The farm contains about

of improved land, well adapted to the growth of cotton and corn. The facilities for composting or manuring are greater than ordinary.

Vegetable mould, or peat, well rotted, lies in a branch for near a mile in length on one side of the field, overlying marl of superior richness. This marl contains, by analysis, with other fertilizing constituents, 6 pr. ct. of Coprolyte, or Phosphate of Lime.

There are ample buildings for dwelling and every needful purpose, on the place.

To the farmers of the middle counties, industrious, working, practical men, who wish to repair their fortunes by cotton planting, this place offers rare inducements. To such men, if without capital, I could give aid the first year, by furnishing stock, provisions &c., to be paid for out of the crop, if desired.

As none but industrious, working men can make cotton successfully, none but those who come well recommended as such need apply.

LARGE

Opening of New Fall Goods,

With an extensive assortment of CARPETS, RUGS, DRUGGETTS AND GENERAL HOUSE-KEEPING GOODS, and an entirely new stock of the handsomest DRESS GOODS the market affords.

Ladies will find this the best opportunity to procure choice new styles of FALL DRESS GOODS, which I am now opening in great variety, such as splendid Eugenia and Empress Cloths, Crepes, Merinos, Goldanelia, richly embroidered—an entirely new things, rich, brilliant silk stripes on chene grounds: "Transconia A'Soie, effective Carceaux, with rich Broches," "Lornetto, effective Satin Carreatux," on lasting finish grounds, very costly; "Rich Valentia, in plain chene," all new and desirable shades, prime qualities and beautiful designs, with rich Broches.

A magnificent assortment of

in all their new styles and combinations, at prices that will not fail to please. I would call special attention to my stock of the largest in Va., or North Carolina, embracing 20,000 yards, all bought at auction, and will be sold at prices far below any similar quality ever offered in this market. I have also just received over 10,000 yards of PANTALOON GOODS, in every variety of finish and quality, varying in price from 30c, to $3. This stock is the largest and most complete of the kind that I have ever offered, and will be constantly replenished during the season as the demand requires.

At a future day I will enumerate the different lines of Goods I usually keep. Suffice it to say, at present, that everything kept in any first-class Dry-Goods House can be found here, in every variety, at the lowest prices.

I would say to those in want of

that the greatest care has been taken in the selection of the best colors and finest fabrics, and they have but to be seen to be appreciated, so that those in want had better

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.,

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated, under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Parham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by, E. E Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES. } Editors.

Tuesday Evening, Sept. 25, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,

JONATHAN WORTH,

OF RANDOLPH.

Election, Thursday, October 18th.

President Johnson's Policy.

The principles of President Johnson's policy were endorsed by the Philadelphia Convention of Aug. 14th., and its action has been endorsed by the President and by the conservative National Union men of all parties. Mr. Holden, in his late address, the New York Herald, the Newbern Times, and Gen. Dockery, take the ground that the policy of the President and the Howard amendment are nearly identical,—about one and the same thing. Let us see what is the policy of President Johnson, as endorsed by the National Union Convention:

1. That the Union is indissoluble. That the right of secession does not belong to the States, and that that question has been settled by the late war.

2. That the late revolt or rebellion did not dissolve the Union, having been fully suppressed by the government, nor did it deprive the States of their organic character.

3. That the people of these States incurred the displeasure of the government by the crime of revolt or rebellion, that it deprived them of civil government and they became subjects of military rule, and deserve punishment.

4. That the government will restore them the functions of civil government, and will grant them pardon for their political offences, with certain exceptions:

(1.) When they subscribe the oath of amnesty in good faith, as prescribed.

(2.) When the pardoned, being loyal, shall proceed to adjust and put in operation the civil functions of the State, by electing a Convention of the people, composed only of the pardoned or loyal men, which Convention shall rescind the act of secession and all laws organic or statutory in violation of the Constitution of the United States, shall abolish slavery forever, shall repudiate all debts incurred in aid of the rebellion, shall provide for the election of State officers who shall be loyal, and elect loyal Senators and Representatives to Congress.

5. That such Senators and Representatives from each of the revolting States, when they present themselves to Congress, are entitled to admission under the Constitution, subject to the constitutional right of the Congress to determine their qualifications.

6. That by the war no new right or powers were acquired either by the Executive or Legislative or judicial departments of the general government, and that their entire power, for peace or war, must be determined by the Constitution.

7. That the States lately in rebellion are entitled to representation under the Constitution as it is, and that, therefore, no further changes should be made in the Constitution until said States are all represented.

These we understand to be the principles of President Johnson and of his policy. Up to the period of the November elections in 1865, no one North or South objected to them as the true theory of restoration or reconciliation. If opposition was felt, so far as we now recollect, no Northern or Southern press or person expressed hostility to them. The North accepted them as sound and promising a speedy settlement. The South, though feeling sensibly the severity and hardship of the terms proposed, acquiesced in them and proceeded in good faith to fulfil them.

From the time, however, that the Federal army entered this city and the Confederate army surrendered, the Standard newspaper of this city, edited by Mr. Holden, and the Progress, then edited by John L. Pennington, an obsequious tool of Mr. Holden, labored with unabated ardor to keep up the strife, by glorifying themselves and their partizan latter-day peace men, and by impressing the Federal officers and soldiers among us, and their Northern readers, with the belief that the spirit of disloyalty and hostility still dwelt in our people who had opposed their views.

The tone of these papers was somewhat mitigated by the appointment of Mr. Holden as Provisional Governor, and the general disposition manifested everywhere to give Mr. Holden's administration a fair trial. This same spirit, however, broke out afresh, greatly intensified, when it was found that the partial and sinister course of the Provisional Governor, and the unguarded and irritating editorials of the two papers above mentioned, provoked opposition to the Provisional Governor as civil Governor of the State. Mr. Holden had, time and again, endorsed the loyalty of the people of the State. But when it was found out that the people, in the exercise of what they regarded a free choice, had chosen Governor Worth, a man of undoubted loyalty, and one of the most consistent, honest, and reliable Union men in the State, in preference to the Provisional Governor, their wrath broke out afresh. Every species of invective, misrepresentation and abuse were let loose upon the people of the State. Mendacious telegrams, the most unfounded charges, were briskly circulated at the North, denunciatory of the loyalty of those elected, and of the masses of the people. Not content with this, by misrepresentation the President was induced to send a telegram to Mr. Holden, condemning the course of the best friends he had in the State, and those who have supported him and still stand by him, while Mr. Holden and his clique have abandoned him altogether, and gone over to the Radicals.

So far as North Carolina is concerned, Mr. Holden and the Standard, and John L. Pennington and the Progress under his control, have been the leaders in the defamation and misrepresentation of the people of North Carolina, through whose agency the most unfounded and wicked impressions have been created in the North against our loyal people. These two men, natives of the State, have traduced and libelled their own neighbors and people, and brought the State under the ban of the North and the National Congress.

We declare, without fear of successful contradiction, that the people of North Carolina have fulfilled every jot and tittle of their known duty in meeting the terms of reconciliation proposed by the President. President Johnson, in his two proclamations, known as the peace proclamations, declares the same thing. Mr. Holden admits that they have complied with every requisition but one. He persists in his misrepresentation and defamation by stating that in the elections they failed to elect a loyal Governor and Legislature, and loyal Senators and Representatives to Congress.

Every school-boy in North Carolina knows that Mr. Holden's defeat and the defeat of some of his friends, constituted the foundation and the only foundation of this most unfounded charge. And we directly charge him, and his aiders and abettors, with being the instruments, with others, of producing, by these unfounded charges, the bad feeling at the North, and the course of the Radicals since, towards the Southern people. If President Johnson's policy failed in North Carolina, William W. Holden was the instrument of that failure. If the people elected a disloyal Governor in Jonathan Worth, or any disloyal members of the Legislature, or disloyal members of Congress, or if the Legislature elected a disloyal Senator, we protest, in their behalf, they did not know it then, and they do not believe it now. If Mr. Holden honestly believed that any of the candidates before the people for election were disloyal men, he owed it to himself, he owed it to the President, he owed it to the people, to the peace of the country and his own loyalty to the Union, that he should have so notified the President, that the people might have been officially informed beforehand, that the election of such men would be unacceptable to the government because of their disloyalty. Wm. W. Holden knows that the people of North Carolina would not then, nor at any time since, have elected any man whom they thought, for a moment, was disloyal. Nor did he believe it when he made the charge, or when he misled the President and drew from him the rebuke to the people of North Carolina concerning the elections. He knew at the time he made the charge that secession and disloyalty had triumphed, that neither Jonathan Worth, nor Wm. A. Graham, nor John Pool, nor any member of Congress elected in the State, ever had even the smell of secession upon their garments, and that, at the time he made the charge against them, every one of them were, at least, equals in loyalty with himself.

His defeat roused his malice and revenge, and nothing else, and see what trouble he has brought upon the country! If the President's magnanimous policy is defeated, it will not be through the treachery of disloyalists and secessionists among the people, but the treachery of such fathers in secession as Wm. W. Holden, of North Carolina, and Jack Hamilton, of Texas. It was such who aroused and kindled afresh the fires of hatred and malice in Northern bosoms, and if North Carolina and the South are crushed and devastated, the burden will rest upon the shoulders of such men.

Does he begin to see the ruin he has invoked upon his own people? Does he see and feel what a fire he has kindled? Is that the reason why he now pleads and urges upon the people of North Carolina the acceptance of the Howard amendment, as a possible means of averting the threatened vengeance of the Radicals, which his own course and that of his supporters has fixed in the hearts and purposes of the Northern people against his own mother State and her deeply injured people? And yet, after all this, he declares in his late address that he has confidence in the people of North Carolina! Out upon such a proposition, when he and his satellites have exerted themselves by every possible means, for nearly a year, to convince President Johnson and the Northern people that the disloyalty of the people of North Carolina has defeated the plan of the President, and that that old patriot and consistent Union man, Gov. Worth, has thrown himself into the arms of disloyalists and traitors!

And more than this, fearing his impotence to wreak full vengeance upon those who defeated him, he calls upon Gen. Dockery, now almost in his grave, to come to his rescue! Vain hope, indeed! Never, never can the people of North Carolina confide in W. W. Holden again, the man who led them to the brow of the vortex of ruin by his teachings of secession and then deserted them, and who now strives to force them into the arms of the radicals.

Keep it Before the People,

That every vote cast for Jonathan Worth will be thrown away, for this reason: If the Howard amendment should prevail, Congress will not relieve him; and if it should not prevail, Congress will reorganize the State government, and in doing so will sweep him from office.—Standard.

And yet Mr. Holden pledged himself, a few days since, to support Gov. Worth for re-election, if he would come out in favor of this same Howard amendment! What hypocrisy!

The Howard amendment will not prevail. If every Northern State should ratify it, which is not at all probable—including even Maryland, Kentucky and Missouri, and including also Tennessee, which has ratified it under a fraud—it will still lack one State of having the necessary three-fourths.

Even if it should, possibly, be ratified by the necessary number of States, and become the law of the land, Gen. Dockery will be disfranchised under it, just as effectually as Gov. Worth. See that letter in another column.

"The Best We Can Get."

Mr. Holden, prior to the issue of his late address, when directly alluding to the Howard amendment, generally spoke of it as preferable to something worse, as "the best we can get." In his late address he swallows and defends it. A "policy man," like Mr. Holden, may and will always determine what is best. True men will only take what is right and just from choice, and only bear a wrong and injustice, when forced upon them.

No right-minded man in the South can prefer the Howard amendment to President Johnson's policy. The one recognizes the Constitution as it is,—the rights of all the States under that instrument—the right to determine their citizenship—to say who shall vote and who shall not—that no additional amendment should be made to the Constitution until all the States are represented in Congress, or until Congress admits them. This is the President's policy. It also guards the Republican features of the State and Federal governments against consolidation.—The Howard amendment denies to the States the right to determine their citizenship—it denies to them the right to say who shall vote—it denies to them the right to say who shall hold office in the State—it fixes the Civil Rights bill upon the nation—it destroys the principle of representation as to population—it forces upon the Southern States, who desire equality with the other States in representation, universal negro suffrage, and gives to Congress the right to legislate for the internal affairs of the State. And yet Mr. Holden says the policy of the President and the Howard amendment are the same.

Now all can see, that the President's policy maintains to them the reserved rights of the States, while the Howard amendment obliterates them. Every true Republican, every true old Whig or true old Democrat, will therefore sustain President Johnson and Jonathan Worth. But every one who prefers the destruction of the State governments, the consolidation of all power into the hands of the Congress, and universal negro suffrage, will vote for Gen. Dockery, (if he be the Holden candidate,) and the Howard amendment.

"Unmistakably Loyal."

The Holdenites, at their recent meeting, could not risk the definition of loyalty adopted by the Radical Congress, but threw overboard the test-oath. Yet Mr. Holden's address, issued under the auspices of that meeting, insists that President Johnson and the Radicals alike contend for it. The President has no where endorsed the test oath as a test of loyalty. So far from it, he accepted the loyalty of every man who subscribed to the amnesty oath. Mr. Holden did the same, until he found so many of his loyal men voted against him for Governor. We republish the resolution:

1. "That only those men, without regard to their antecedents, who are "unmistakably loyal" to the government of the United States, should be appointed and elected by the people of North Carolina to any office or place of trust or profit.

This is precisely the doctrine of Gov. Worth. We understand it to be the doctrine of the President, and of the Johnson-Worth men in North Carolina. Gov. Worth has carefully adhered to this doctrine in all his appointments to office since he has been Governor. We would put no one in office ourselves, but those men, "without regard to their antecedents," who are now "unmistakably loyal men." We challenge any man to show an instance in which he has departed from this principle.

And yet this same meeting has put forth the following base slander against Gov. Worth:

5 That we profoundly regret the defection of Governor Worth from the Union cause, his proscription for opinion's sake of Union men from office, and the injurious influence which the prominent instigators and actors in the rebellion are exerting over him in his official conduct. We cannot hope that the State will be restored to the Union under his auspices; and, as we prefer principle to men, and believe the restoration of the Union to be more important and more vital to the best interests of the State than everything else, we feel it to be our duty firmly to oppose his re-election.

Gov. Worth occupies the identical position he has always stood upon. "Before the war he was a far more consistent Union man than Mr. Holden or Gen. Dockery. During the war, though deprecating it, he sympathized with his section and people, and, since the war ended, has studiously promoted the ends of peace and Union, by recognizing the claims of all classes of citizens, and promoting, as far as possible, both by precept and example, the cultivation of peace, harmony and friendship, among ourselves and towards the entire Union. The resolution asserts, what its authors know to be false, that he has proscribed Union men for opinion's sake. We defy them to prove what they assert. His appointments, in every instance, have been made, not in reference to what men had been, but what he believed them to be at the time, and with special regard to their personal merits and fitness for the position.

Mass Meetings.

We are gratified to see that our friends in the West are fully alive to the important issue involved in the present canvass.

The last Asheville News contains glowing accounts of mass meetings of the people in Buncombe and Henderson Counties, in which the most enthusiastic spirit prevailed. The meeting in Asheville was addressed by Col. L. S. Gash, of Henderson, M. Patton, Esq., and Col. W. M. Cocke. All the speakers denounced the Howard amendment and the News pithily says "Radicalism is dead in Buncombe."

The meeting in Henderson was addressed by Col. Gash and Jno. H. Hyman, Esq., and resolutions were adopted unanimously endorsing the action of the Philadelphia National Union Convention.

The Statesville American contains the proceedings of a public meeting in Wilkesboro, at which the resolutions and address of the same Convention were heartily approved.

Keep the ball rolling!

Keep it Before the People,

That Alfred Dockery has never engaged in the rebellion, and will not need to be relieved by Congress. Every vote that may be cast for him will count as a good vote.—Standard.

Alfred Dockery has never engaged in the rebellion,—eh? Will Mr. Holden oblige us by turning to his file of Jan. 30th., 1863, and informing the public if the following is not a veritable extract from his issue of that date?—It seems that some one had been "slandering" Gen. Dockery by calling him a reconstructionist, whereupon the General wrote a letter to a friend, who had informed him of the charge, indignantly denying it in the words and figures following:

From the Standard, Jan. 30, 1863.

The following letter from this "noble old Roman" speaks for itself. Having been charged by the miserable minions of power with favoring a reconstruction of the old government, Gen. Dockery, in reply to a friend, who wrote to inform him of the charge, treats it as it deserves, and, at the same time, frankly and truthfully expresses his opinion as to the origin of our present troubles:

Letter from Gen. Dockery.

DOCKERY'S STORE, Jan. 22nd, 1863.

Dear Sir:—On my return, yesterday, from a visit to see several sick negroes at Wilmington, whom I had sent to work on the fortifications around that place, I received your favor of the 15th inst., informing me of a report in Raleigh, that I had been stumping Montgomery County in favor of reconstruction and again uniting with the YANKEE Government.

The story is a most unmitigated falsehood.—The last and only speech I have made in that county, within the last eight or nine years, I made a short time before the last Presidential election, in which I plead with the people to vote for Col. Bell, to save the county from the calamity of Lincoln's election; and the last speech I made any where, or upon any question, was at our Sept. Court, in 1861, with Judge Shepherd, Col. Cameron, and others, to induce the people to fill up the ranks of a volunteer company then being raised by my son, O. H. Dockery.

Although I have all along and still entertain the opinion, that our national troubles might and ought to have been adjusted without the infamous war in which we are involved, for the omission of which I hold the leaders of the Northern fanatics and Southern ambitious secession politicians, about equally culpable, I have always advised respect for, and obedience to, the laws of the country, and feel confident that when the insanity of the present day shall have passed away, millions, both North and South, will concur in this opinion. I have two sons in Jackson's Corps, on the Rappahannock,—two in the Western Armies, one of whom received a severe, perhaps mortal wound, in the Corinth battle, with my son Benjamin, (who was discharged at Richmond, after the battles around that city, on account of lost health and imperfect vision,) and son Oliver, superseded in the transfer of the State troops—in all six sons; and yet, because I exercise the remaining right of expressing my opinion of the course of ambitious demagogues in involving our once happy country in this destructive war, I am constantly SLANDERED.

Please accept my sincere thanks for the continued evidences of your warm friendship.

Respectfully and truly,
Yours, &c.,
ALFRED DOCKERY.

"Gen. Dockery will not need to be relieved by Congress," if the Howard amendment should prevail,—won't he?

Wake Candidates.

The Standard says that none of the candidates in Wake are for Gov. Worth. We have not heard that any one has yet announced himself, except R. S. Perry, Esq. The friends of President Johnson and Gov. Worth determined to leave every man inclined to run and every voter to his own choice, without the trammel of a caucus or convention nomination. All the persons we have heard named as candidates, we understand, declare that that they will not vote for the Howard amendment. We presume every person who desires to be elected, will announce himself in due time, and will be required to define his position. No Johnson man, opposed to the Howard amendment, can be inconsistent enough to support Gen. Dockery; if he do, no Johnson man will be inconsistent enough to vote for that man. For ourselves, we are not concerned as to the result. We believe that no man in Wake who advocates the Howard amendment, and votes for Gen. Dockery, can be elected.

"But what have the Sentinel and its friends been doing in the way of meetings? It is notorious that the great Convention held here in the Senate chamber, to send delegates to the Philadelphia Convention, was composed of the Chairman, the junior editor of the Sentinel, as Secretary, and one more to make the motions."—Standard.

Oh! fie! fie! Does not the Standard know that the proceedings of that Convention were published in full, that the names of the delegates were given, (as was not the case in the great Mass meeting which met in a back room of the Standard office,) and that every Congressional District in the State, except the 1st., was represented? Does not the Standard also know that the selection of State delegates to the Philadelphia Convention was committed to the District delegates, and that they were nearly all in attendance?

Again we say, fie, oh! fie.

Dead Ducks.

The Standard says that Messrs. Lewis Thompson, Robert P. Dick, Thomas Settle and Dr. Grissom will follow Mr. Holden in the support of the Howard amendment, and will vote for Gen. Dockery, the Holden-Radical candidate. We had hoped better things of them, but, if they are anxious to immolate themselves upon the altar of Holden-Radicalism, we cannot help it. Henceforth they will be known as D. D's., of the Forney school. As to his friend, Tod R. Caldwell, "its no more'n we expected." He is constitutionally a Radical and can't help it.

Dr. Grissom, of Granville.

We learn that Dr. Grissom is a candidate for the Legislature in Granville County. The friends of Andrew Johnson, in that County, will bear in mind the following: In a letter to his friend Holden, the Dr. says:

"There is no hope for the South except in the ratification of the proposed constitutional amendment. I am for it, as the best we can hope to get."

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

Tuesday Evening, Sept. 25, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Change of Schedule: R. & G. R. R. Co.

The attention of all interested is called to the Court advertisements from Granville.

In sundry announcements, Rosenbaum, 16 Fayetteville Street, makes known to the public that he is fully "up to the times," and is daily receiving fresh accessions to his splended stock of Fall and Winter goods.

Peter R. Davis, Executor of Dr. H. J. Davis, offers for sale a desirable dwelling, nice town lots and a tract of land near Warrenton, N. C. The property will be sold at public auction on the 15th of November.

Another grand exhibition of dissolving views will be given at the Commons Hall this evening. A variety of new and interesting scenes will be presented.

A young lady, graduate of that excellent institution, Wesleyan Female College, Murfreesboro', desires a situation as Teacher.

A number of new advertisements, crowded out to-day, will appear to morrow.

MILITARY.—We learn from the Index, that Col. Bumford, of the 8th Regular Infantry, succeeds Gen. Goff in the Military command of troops in this State. Col. Bumford arrived in this City, where his headquarters will be located, on Sunday evening. He has brought with him, we are informed, a very excellent band of music.

THE INDEX.—The publication of our City cotemporary has been temporarily suspended, for satisfactory reasons fully stated in this morning's issue by Mr. Moore, the worthy Editor.—He hopes, at a very early day, to revive the paper under better auspices.

TABLEAUX.—We are requested to give notice that there will be an exhibition of Tableaux, at New Hope, in this county, on Friday evening next, for the benefit of the Memorial Association of Wake.

THE STATE LIBRARY.—Having occasion, a few days ago, to visit our State Library, we were struck with the air of neatness which everything has assumed since its days of purification. At small expense, the genial Librarian, Mr. Perry, has polished and brightened the wainscotting and walls and shelves, until they are all in condition "maist as good as the new." The well-selected books are arranged in apple-pie order, and the fatherly care of the gentleman who has them in charge—and who regards them almost as his babies—has dressed them out in their best bib and tuckers, and now presents them to the public with pleasure and pride.—Not only gentlemen of leisure may pass a pleasant hour in this quiet retreat, but our ladies will be welcomed to a seat in the old arm chair and to a search among the choice volumes adorning the library, which have been purchased by the liberality of the State for the use of her citizens, and selected with great judgment and taste by the present worthy Librarian and his predecessors in office. A Turkey carpet only is wanted to make the arrangements complete; and this will come one of these days, when the dear old Commonwealth shall have become rich again, and can bravely lift up her honored head among her sister States as one of their equals, with no blush upon her brow and no sense of degradation wearing away her honest old heart. God speed the day!

THE LEGISLATURE.—We are gratified to learn that Montreville Patton, Esq., has consented to become a candidate for the House of Commons from Buncombe.

Jno. D. Hyman, Esq., is the conservative candidate for the House from Henderson and Transylvania.

Col. L. S. Gash is the Johnson-Worth candidate for the Senate from the Senatorial District of Buncombe, Henderson, Transylvania, &c.

ARTESIAN WELLS.—The Newbern Commercial says that Messrs. E. W. Ellis, W. P. Moore and others, of Newbern, have recently found an abundance of water by boring in the old wells on the Artesian principle. We are glad to hear this. We believe that Newbern and Wilmington could both find good water by sinking Artesian wells 400 feet or upwards. Good water in those places would add greatly to the comfort and health of the people and would no doubt add to the business of those cities. We hope the matter will be fully tested.

N. C. CONFERENCE.—This will inform Ministers and others, designing to attend the session of the N. C. Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South, which will convene in this place, the 7th November next, that Steamboats for their accommodation will leave Wilmington on the 5th of November, and arrive in Fayetteville on Tuesday, the 6th.

Also, there will be daily trains on the Western Railroad to Egypt, during the week of Conference, commencing on Monday, the 5th Nov.

I request that local preachers, designing to attend the session of Conference, and young men who intend to join Conference, will inform me of their intention at their earliest convenience.

T. W. GUTHRIE.

Fayetteville, Sept. 24, 1866.

A lady in Lafayette, Ind., recently in preparing her Sunday dinner put some beans in a pot to bake. In a hurry to get to church she inadvertently put her hymn book in the pot and wrapped a piece of pork in her handkerchief and took it to church with her.

AN INSTANCE OF HONESTY.—The Petersburg Index states that a lady of that city, who was temporarily residing in Raleigh at the time of Sherman's approach to this place, was greatly exercised as the invading host drew near, to imagine what safe disposition she should make of some highly valued silver-plate in her possession. To keep it would, she thought, be to tempt the bummers to violence, to bury it would be to incur a great risk, so at last she determined to entrust its safety to the care of a family servant, who, with his young mistresses, Misses Gregg, of South Carolina, was staying in the house.

The negro took these and other valuable articles, and as Sherman, at last, came in sight, slipped off, and made for his old home at Columbia, S. C. Soon afterwards the lady returned to Petersburg, and as many months passed away without any news from the silver, she might be excused if some doubts arose as to the fidelity of its guardian.

But a few weeks since a letter came from Carolina, announcing the whereabouts of the servant, and the safety of the property entrusted to him, and asking directions as to the disposition to be made of it, and on one day of the past week a box came by Express bringing every article.

The servant's name is Pleasants, and he was a personal attendant of General Gregg. We learn that this honesty will be suitably rewarded by the lady he served.

The New York Tribune on Mr. Davis.

We find the following reference to Ex-President Davis in the New York Tribune of Friday:

"President Johnson has declared that he cannot interfere before Mr. Davis has been tried by the proper court; it is therefore to Chief Justice Chase that the appeal is addressed.

We cherish no ill feeling toward this prisoner; while on the other hand, he is a stranger to us, whom we have never been tempted either to love or admire. That he has played an important part makes no difference in our view. He is just a man, after all, and in good part the creature of circumstances, as most men are. That some have wanted to hang him "on a sour apple tree," while others have done us like honor, is quite immaterial. But we do feel that the Government of our country is disgracing itself by its treatment of this prisoner—that it ought to have brought him to trial long since, and let him know his fate—that it is playing a shabby, shuffling, cowardly part with regard to him—that it should either retract its charge of assassination or have him indicted and tried thereon according to law—that keeping him in prison untried, and not even attempting to bring his case to issue, is diffusing an impression at the South that the government dare not try him for fear of damaging developments and a discomfiting verdict. In short, if there was ever a case mismanaged, to the peril of momentous public interests, it is, in our view, that of the United States against Jefferson Davis; and it is a high misdemeanor in some one to permit it to drag on in this miserable fashion.

All of this—most of it, at any rate—we have urged already—perhaps more than once—and, as no good has been effected, we might as well have said nothing. Some exceedingly smart people think capital may be made for or against Andrew Johnson by letting this game go on. We feel that it should be at once—that the prisoner should be arraigned forthwith on the most damaging charge that can be maintained against him—that he should be promptly and fairly tried thereon—and that all talk of punishing or pardoning him should be foreborne till the verdict shall have been rendered. There seem to be persons to-day who dissent from these views; but does any one imagine that there can be a question, twenty years hence, as to their soundness and importance."

Saluting the Flag of Brazil.

The Navy Department to-day received despatches from Acting Rear-Admiral Gordon, dated Bahia, August 25, in which he communicates the fact of the arrival of the flag-ship Brooklyn at that port, after a long passage under sail, without other incident of note than that of falling in with the masts and spars of a large ship about 250 miles to the Southward, which vessel had evidently been burned not far from the place where the wreck was discovered. On reaching Bahia, the Admiral found the Nepsie, Lieutenant Commander Blake, awaiting his arrival. The officer had perfectly carried out the department's instructions to salute the Brazilian flag, under the order of July 12. The incidental circumstances attendant on the ceremonies were all of the pleasantest character, and will not fail to be agreeably remembered. The Admiral encloses documents which show that the firing of a salute of twenty-one guns to the flag of Brazil was to make the amende honorable for an offence committed by a United States officer, which was at once disavowed by the United States Government, namely, the forcible seizure by the Wachusett of the Confederate vessel Florida, in the port of Bahia, and the bringing of her to the United States waters, where she was lost. Commander Blake, in his note to the President of the Province of Bahia, says: "The undersigned, in executing his duty, begs leave to express to your Excellency the sincere hope that in the dying echoes of the last gun will also expire any unkind feeling that may exist in Brazil from the cause which has given rise to this ceremonial." The President of the Province, in reply, rejoiced that the government of the United States, appreciating in its wisdom the justice which exists in this empire, should not have hesitated in giving public satisfaction for an offence committed against it during the tranquility of a profound peace, and confiding in the sentiments which are manifested, it also became him to assure Commander Blake that the honor of the nation, being thus satisfied, not the slightest resentment will remain against a government which thus solemnly shows before the civilized world that she does not avail herself of the force at her disposal against an injured power, and that, on the contrary, will hold in the highest appreciation the justice of a nation which continues to make more dear the relations of friendship and consideration which until now have united, and will continue to unite, the two powers which inhabit the same continent.

The salute was given on the anniversary of the coronation of the Emperor, and was returned gun for gun.—Washington Star.

RUMORED FORGERY CASE—A NEWSPAPER ESTABLISHMENT CONCERNED—The Sunday quiet of the city of Norfolk was harshly disturbed yesterday morning by rumors startling and unpleasant. Said rumors associated the heretofore honored name of C. C. Flint, proprietor of the Old Dominion newspaper establishment, with certain forgeries alleged to have been committed, from time to time, upon the Exchange National Bank, Main street, which institution is said to be the loser to the amount of from five to twenty thousand dollars.—Norfolk Virginian, yesterday.

From New York—Trial of Mr. Davis.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.

Jno. B. Steele, Ex-Congressman, was thrown from a wagon in Kingston, on yesterday, and killed.

A Tribune special says that the trial of Mr. Davis cannot take place in October, and its postponement is a legal necessity, consequent upon irregularities in the adjournment of the Circuit Court at Norfolk last April. Chief Justice Chase announces himself ready to call a special session and proceed with the trial.

From the New York World.

The wandering course of BROWNLOW, HAMILTON and Company—who are to follow the Torch-and Turpentine brigade, with instruments to survey the land, preliminary to the grand gift distribution—shows that they are very poor "surveyors"; but their open advocacy of the doctrine of miscegenation is evidence that they are good "levellers;" as witness this speech of HORACE MAYNARD, at Athens Tenn., on the 21st ultimo:

"And I tell you, gentlemen, that in a short time all this complaint about negro equality will be done away with. Some months since it was said that the negro would not be suffered to testify in your courts—that his oath would not be granted him. But how stands the matter already? He is not only permitted to testify in your courts with impunity, but there is every evidence that he will soon be on a social equality with the white man in your State. Yes, gentlemen, in a short time he will marry and intermarry in your families. It is a little objectionable to-day, but you will soon get over this, and the persecuted negro will be welcome in your parlors. This will be the result of the political and social changes of the next few months."

Governor Parsons, of Alabama, in a recent speech said: "We hear it said that there is no liberty in speech down there. Well I will guarantee if the President visits us he can have a hearing, and that is more than he gets in the Northwest. (Great laughter and applause.)—What would be said if, because the President could not be heard in Indiana, Congress should propose to keep that State out of the Union? (Laughter.) It makes a vast difference whose ox is gored."

DIED,

In Greensboro, on the 17th. inst., Mrs. SARAH JANE HUGHES, wife of W. P. Hughes, Esq., and daughter of Peter Adams, Esq., of that place, in the 27th year of her age. She leaves a devoted husband and parents, and a little boy, severely stricken at this sad dispensation, but they sorrow in hope.

Died in the County of Montgomery, N. C., at the residence of W. T. Bruton, [his brother-in-law] on the 23rd. of Augnst, 1866, EDMUND J. GAINES, son of the late Col. James L. Gaines, being 33 years and 3 days old.

Death is at all times an unwelcome messenger, but when its shaft smites down one who is in the full prime and vigor of manhood, in the midst of dear relatives and friends, our hearts are filled with sadness, and we are not able to unravel the mysteries of Him, who seeth not as man seeth, and who doeth all things well.

The deceased was a young man of finished education, having graduated at Chapel Hill the 7th of June 1855, and received license to practice law in 1857.

He possessed talents of a high order, and was distinguished for his sociability, wit, good humor and sarcasm. He was sensitive and high toned, and his friendship was true and devoted, and he possessed the strictest integrity of character.

At the commencement of the late unhappy war, he volunteered in the first company from Montgomery County, and proved to be a faithful soldier, winning the affection of his comrades in arms. He eventually returned home, and resumed the duties of his office (Clerk and Master in Equity,) and the practice of the law.

He was elected and served in the House of Commons of the Legislature of 1865, and made a most useful and efficient representative. His influence and interest, exerted for the benefit of his constituents and especially for the interests of the County of Montgomery, will be long felt and gratefully remembered by her best citizens.

While we drop the sympathetic tear over the departure of our friend, let charity incline us to forget his foibles, whatever they may have been, and not withhold from his memory the praise, which his virtues may have claimed. "His meritorious actions we should imitate and from his weaknesses we are to derive instruction."

Another link has been taken from our social circle and brotherhood. May we, who survive him, be more strongly cemented in the ties of friendship and union and mutually promote the welfare and happiness of each other.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all-healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspepic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, Proprietor.

THE GORGAS

MINING AND MANUFACTURING COMPANY,

On Deep River, Chatham Co., N. C.

OFFER FOR SALE

AT AUCTION!

Their entire Manufacturing Establishment, Including Grist Mill, &c., &c.

The Gorgas Mining and Manufacturing Company will sell at public auction, on the premises, the 27th. instant, their valuable

IRON WORKS AND MILL,

Situated on Deep River, 30 miles west of Raleigh, and 6 miles of Pittsboro', the county seat of Chatham county. The Mill is now in operation, grinding Wheat and Corn.

The Water Power is unsurpassed, being capable of the application of 300 horse power, if necessary.

The Machinery embraces every variety used in first-class Machine Shops, such as Planers, Lathes, Milling Machines, Trip and Drop Hammers, Rip Saws, &c., &c., complete for making Railroad Cars, or can be easily converted into a first-class Agricultural Manufactory.

There are 27 Cabins and large Stables on the premises, and ample accommodations for laborers and teams.

The Factory is situated in the midst of Coal and Iron fields, immediately on the river, which affords transportation at trifling cost.

Inexhaustible Copper Mines, of superior quality, are within 14 miles of the shop, and it may be added that the country adjacent abounds in magnificent forest of Pine and Oak.

At the same time, will be sold—

30 Tons of Pig Iron.

In addition to Steamboat Navigation from Wilmington to the Factory door, a Railroad is now in process of construction from Raleigh to the Gorgas Company's Factory.

Our Agent, on the premises, will show the property to any one wishing to examine it.

Letters of enquiry may be addressed to Col. J. M. HECK, Warrenton, N. C., or to P. T. NORWOOD, Petersburg, Va.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON. D. C.

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Collegeo Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R E COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va., Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and compatriots in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON, Superintendent Hillsborough Military Academy, Hillsborough N. C.
